PRODUCER INFO

Mozart Jones Born: Sacramento, California
 Jones is the mind behind Mozart Jones Entertainment, a 25-year-old LA native. This DJ/producer/rapper (one of the youngest) runs his own radio internet station, works as stage crew and sound manager and owns a film production company. Jones also turns out the beats for some major labels and artists. This Producer from Sacramento, California has so many names and nicknames that some people don't realize they're all the same person. Mozart was named when he was born. He uses Mozart as his name because it represents his initials "MJ" - get it? Also, he sometimes uses the nick Rocky to express his rougher, meaner alter-ego (the other side of his personality). Mozart Jones Childhood and Family Growing up in a single-parent home, never knew his father, or mother, making it difficult for him to make friends, graduate and stay out of trouble. Interested in Producing from a young age, Mozart began performing as early as age 5, later gaining some popularity with a group. He became famous in the hip-hop underground because of his distinctive, cartoonish style! The mission, says Jones, is "to make good music with hot * beats!" He goes on to say that "in this business, we have old school, hip-hop, R&B, pop, rock and more." Mozart Jones Entertainment is bursting with talent and always seeking to add more to the roster. The stated goal is to climb to the top and stand as a true contender among the major labels. The group is already working with artists through Def Jam and Disney but is always willing to tackle talent from any origin. Jones has also worked with Aftermath Entertainment/Interscope Records. Jones has experience with J Records, BET, ESPN and more. "I try to make music that will have a universal appeal," according to Mozart Jones. Sounds and styles are always flowing through Jones' head and he shoots for musical diversity at all times. "it's always been my desire to make music for the world."
